The Committee shall provide assistance to the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities to the stockholders, potential stockholders, and the investment community to ensure that the Company’s officers, key executives, and Board members are compensated in accordance with the Company’s total compensation objectives. The Committee shall have the resources and authority appropriate to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to select, retain, terminate, and approve the fees and other retention terms of Compensation Advisers (as defined below), as it deems appropriate, without seeking approval of the Board or management. The Company will provide the appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to a Compensation Adviser retained by the Committee. The authority to retain compensation consultants to assist in the evaluation of director, Chief Executive Officer or other executive officer compensation shall be vested solely in the Committee.

II. Membership

The Committee must consist of not less than two non-management members of the Board.

Subject to the amended and restated by-laws of the Company (as amended from time to time, the “By-Laws”), (i) the members of the Committee and its Chairman will be selected annually by the Board and will serve at the pleasure of the Board, and (ii) any vacancy on the Committee will be filled by, and any member of the Committee may be removed by, an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board. If a Chairman is not designated by the Board or present at a meeting, the Committee may designate a Chairman by majority vote of the Committee members then in office.

III. Authority and Responsibilities

The Committee is delegated all authority of the Board as may be required or advisable to fulfill the purposes of the Committee. Without limiting the generality of the preceding statements, the Committee has the authority, and is entrusted with the responsibility, to take the following actions:

A. Authority

The Committee has the authority to:

1. Conduct or authorize investigations into any matter within the scope of the responsibilities delegated to the Committee as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or Compensation Adviser of the Company to meet with the Committee or any Compensation Advisers engaged by the Committee;
2. In its sole discretion, retain and determine funding for legal counsel, compensation consultants, as well as other experts and advisers (collectively, "Compensation Advisers"), including the authority to retain, approve the fees payable to, amend the engagement with, and terminate any Compensation Adviser, as it deems necessary or appropriate to fulfill its responsibilities. 1. The Committee will exercise oversight of all matters of executive compensation policy.
